(10.18.20)

1. Why is the word “therefore” used at the beginning of this passage? What does it tell us about this passage and the previous one?
2. How does Jesus’ example about the birds and the lilies of the field help us not to worry?
3. Why is there no reason to worry when we seek God’s kingdom first?
4. Over the last few weeks, we have talked a lot about Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount and the “upside down” Kingdom of God. In what ways are God’s kingdom and the earth different?
5. Take some time now to practice your memory verse, Matthew 6:33. After reading it a couple times, try to make up hand motions for it or pick a fun voice to recite it in!
